Formation Leader

Jennifer Bell has been a catechist of the Good Shepherd for 25 years serving continually in home, parish, and school atria with children ages 3-12 and all levels of CGS. Her own children's longing to know Jesus more drew her and her husband, also a catechist, to working in atria.

Jennifer is a CGSUSA recognized Formation Leader in Level 1 and 2 since 2015. She has formed the Sisters of Missionaries of Charity novices in San Francisco for 7 years and in Rome in 2019 and is part of the Formation Team of the Seminal Infant Toddler Catechesis.

Continual work with children in the atrium and knowing deeply their silent plea "help me come close to God, help me be fully who I am" is at the center of Jennifer's work as a Spiritual Director with adults and families.

Assistant Formation Leader

Ramie Samour began her CGS adventure in 2008 when she was introduced to the work in Anchorage, Alaska and signed up for a formation course in Texas before ever setting foot in an atrium. This formation experience was so powerful she was convicted to do everything possible to avail her children of this model of faith formation.

Ramie has received certification in all three levels of CGS formation as well as a certificate in the Seminal Infant Toddler Formation. She is currently in the discernment process of becoming a Level I Formation Leader.

Ramie met her husband Jake while studying at the Pontifical John Paul II Institute for Studies in Marriage and Family in Washington D.C. where they both graduated as Masters of Theological Studies. Jake, also a CGS catechist, directs the Office of Marriage and Family Life for the Diocese of Wichita while Ramie lives the marriage and family life at home. They homeschool their 6 children ranging in age from 14-4.
